

God Became Human

God become human.
Human to feel the warmth of human family
Nappychanges
And bedtime stories.
Human to feel the barb of poverty and pride,
To suffer detention
And all the inhospitability a bureaucrat can conspire.
God communicating with us in person
Face to face.
God creating space for humanity
That sets free
Because now everything is possible.
The paradox of it.
The unlikelihood of it.
We celebrate it
But we don't understand it.
The joy in wonder.
Wonder.
